PRIVACY STATEMENT

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires each federal agency that maintains a system of information on individuals to inform those individuals as to:

- A. The authority (whether granted by statute or by executive order of the President) which authorizes the solicitation of the information and whether disclosure of such information is mandatory or voluntary.
- B. The principal purpose or purposes for which the information is intended to be used.
- C. The routine uses which may be made of the information, as pursuant to paragraph (4) (D) of the subsection and of the requested information.

The Bureau of Indian Affairs Higher Education Program operates under the general authority of 24 USC Chapter 13, 42 STAT 208 P.L. 67-85 with specific legislation contained in 25 U.S.C., Subchapter E, Part 32, Administration of education loans, grants, and other assistance for higher education.

In accordance with the accountability required for the administration of the funds appropriated for the program and in order to provide services to recipients and to declare eligibility, certain information is required of the applicants. This form solicits the required information. Use of personal data will be available to authorize sources upon request. The applicant should understand that the intent of collecting and maintaining is for the production of certain statistical records required of the office. Failure on the part of the applicant to provide the requested information will preclude the applicant for eligibility in obtaining higher education assistance under the Pueblo of San Felipe Tribal Scholarship Program.

I have read the Privacy Statement listed with the application form. I hereby provide the required information and authorize the use of such information to the extent of the uses specified in the statement.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Release

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education.

FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a postsecondary institution. Students to whom the rights have transferred are "eligible students."

Under the FERPA, the Pueblo of San Felipe Education Department is permitted to disclose information from your education records to your parents if your parent/s claim you as a dependent for federal tax purposes. Please indicate whether your parent/s claim you as a tax dependent.

_____ Yes. I certify that my parents claim me as a dependent for federal income tax purposes.

_____ No. I certify that my parents do not claim me as a dependent for federal income tax purposes.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

If you are not a dependent or do not know if your parents claim you as a dependent for federal income tax purposes, but you agree that the Pueblo of San Felipe Education Department (PoSF ED) may disclose information from your education records to your parents, please sign the following consent: I consent to the disclosure of any personally identifiable information from my education records to my parent(s) for reasons determined by the PoSF ED as appropriate. This authorization will remain in effect until I notify the Education Department in writing of any changes.
